"Among so many excellent Institutions, it is hardly fair to single out one for special notice, but the work done at the Royal Normal College for the Blind, Norwood, in developing the physical and mental powers of the inmates, and training them to occupations in which they can earn a living, seems to us exceptionally helpful.

"A good charity will always be supported, provided it is carried on with economy and courage."

Report of the Executive Committee.

General
Summary.

The Executive Committee have to present to the General Council and to the Public interested in the education and training of the Blind, a Report of the College for the past year—being their Thirty-second Annual Report.

The work at the College continues substantially the same as has been described in former Reports. In the Junior School there is the imparting to the pupils of a thorough general education as the groundwork of the higher and specialised instruction to be added afterwards. Special attention is given to health and physical development, and to the cultivation of individual self-dependence, together with due attention to conduct, and with a firm but kindly exercise of discipline. The result is that the children compare favourably with others of similar age in point of intelligence and alertness, good manners, and the look of health and happiness. On this foundation the higher instruction of the College is built. Its pupils receive such advanced teaching and training as will prepare them for taking their place in the world as self-supporting citizens, in the capacities of piano tuners, pianists, organists, choir leaders, music teachers, and general teachers—employments in which they can support themselves without charitable assistance.

A detailed statement of the system followed at the College, with full particulars as to the Staff and the progress of the pupils during last year, will be found in the Report by the Principal which follows this Report of the Committee To all the teachers the Committee feel indebted for zealous and efficient services, and especially they would record their high appreciation of the ability and devotedness of the Principal and Mrs. Campbell, with whom the College has been identified ever since its institution.

In the Principal's Report, an interesting statement is included of the steps which led to the starting of the College thirty-three years ago, being the reprint of a speech by the late Dr. T. R. Armitage in 1873, one year after the College was opened. It is interesting to observe how faithfully the objects aimed at by Dr. Armitage and the other Founders have been kept in view, and in many instances fully realized.

The most important event of last year, as regards the action of the Committee, was a Banquet held at the Hotel Cecil on the 21st of April, our President, Lord Howard de Walden, in the chair. The Banquet was numerously attended, and several Vice-Presidents and other tried friends of the College were present. The claims of the Institution on the support of the Public were warmly pressed by the noble Chairman, by the Earl of Aberdeen, by Lord Rosmead, by Sir William Collins, and others, and the collection on the occasion yielded a contribution of £1,500 to the College funds.

Another interesting event was the annual Prize Festival held in the grounds of the College on the 26th of July, when a very numerous company assembled, and after an inspection of the classes and a concert in the Gardner Hall, diplomas and prizes were presented by the Lady Esther Smith, and addresses delivered by the Hon. W. F. D. Smith, M.P., and others.

Christmas Tree
Festival.

Another Meeting may be mentioned, although not falling strictly within the limits of the year—namely, the Christmas Tree Meeting in the beginning of January, under the Chairmanship of the Right Hon. Mr. Gully, Speaker of the House of Commons. This is referred to so fully in the Principal's Report, that it is unnecessary to do more than ask attention to what is there stated. We especially commend to attention the words of The Right Hon. The Speaker.

Other Entertainments.

The Committee desire to express their grateful thanks to the Albany Dramatic Club and Mr. Guy Campbell for arranging and giving two performances at Stanley Hall, South Norwood, in aid of the funds of the College, resulting in the substantial contribution of over £60.

In June last, at the same Hall, Captain Beaumont, at his own expense, arranged a dramatic entertainment and concert on behalf of the Croydon Hospital and the Royal Normal College, and the Committee have to return their thanks to Captain Beaumont for a cheque of £36 11s. as their share of the proceeds.

As in former years some Garden Parties were held at the College during the summer, when visitors had the opportunity of inspecting the classes at work and of hearing musical performances by the pupils.*

Deaths of
A. Quarry
Silcock, Esq.,
and F. D.
Mocatta, Esq.

The Committee have to regret that they have lost by death two highly esteemed members of their number.

Mr. Quarry Silcock was for many years Honorary Ophthalmic Surgeon of the College and a Member of the Executive Committee. In his professional capacity he gave his services with much kindness and readiness, and it was felt to be a great advantage to the College to have a gentleman of his professional distinction to apply to for advice and assistance. And as a Member of Committee Mr. Silcock always evinced the greatest interest in the general work of the College.

* The College is always open to visitors on the first Thursday of every month, except January, August and September, at 3.15 p.m.

Mr. F. D. Mocatta was a Member of Committee from a very early period of the Institution's history, and was ever a most liberal friend of its work.

The Committee have also to record with regret the loss of two other members by resignation. Mr. H. A. Henderson, one of the Honorary Solicitors, on whom the Committee greatly relied for professional guidance and for active co-operation in their work, has been obliged to resign his place because of ill-health; and Mr. Van Duzer, who was our Honorary Secretary, has resigned because of the claims of his business engagements. The Committee greatly miss the assistance of these gentlemen. Resignations.

Reference has been made to the Banquet of last year. We may remark that its success was greatly due to the untiring exertions of Mr. Van Duzer, to whom the Committee felt and now acknowledge their very deep obligations.

For some years past the Committee have called attention to the unsatisfactory position of the finances of the College, and have appealed for a larger measure of support if the College is to remain what it is and always has been, a College for the Higher Education and Training of the Blind, and an Academy of Music. The Statement of Accounts appended to this Report shows that during last year there has been some improvement. The income has exceeded the expenditure by £164, a much better result than in the previous year, when the income was less than the expenditure by £1,025. But this result has been arrived at by applying, as in several previous years, to current wants, the legacies received during the year. Finance.

This is not satisfactory. We ought to be able to set aside all legacies to the reduction of debt and redemption of mortgage, which, however, cannot be done so long as there are charges to meet for which the ordinary income does not suffice.

The Committee reported last year that, in order to meet an accumulated deficit and provide for current wants, they had been obliged to borrow £3,000 from the Bankers. One-half of this loan has now been repaid.

There is a mortgage over the College property of £15,000, towards the redemption of which an instalment of £441 is paid annually to the Charity Commissioners. The amount of these instalments is now £2,205, to which accumulating interest has to be added.

The debt of the College is the Loan (now reduced to £1,500) from the Bankers, a balance of £676 16s. due on the year's accounts, and the mortgage of £15,000, less the instalments of Mortgage Redemption already paid.

The total Income in 1904 amounted to £12,091. Of this sum, £7,859 was from contributions on account of pupils; £392 from Government Grants on account of the School and Training College; £1,190 from subscriptions and donations, and sundries: £1,500 from the Banquet: and £1,150 from Legacies.

The expenditure in the year was as follows:—for Educational Salaries and Appliances, £3,018; for Maintenance, £5,455; for Medical Outlay, £67; Office Expenses, £689; Garden and Grounds, £243; General Expenses (including interest on mortgage and loan, rent, rates, taxes and insurance, repairs and renewals, and boarding-out certain pupils) £1,716—making the ordinary current expenditure £11,189. There was besides, of capital outlay, the payment to Charity Commissioners of an instalment on account of mortgage redemption of £441, and an expenditure on buildings and furniture of £297—raising the total expenditure to £11,927.

The Committee have given every consideration to the state of the funds, and are persuaded that the current expenditure cannot be substantially reduced without lowering the standard of efficiency of the College as an Institution for giving its pupils a higher education and musical training, and so fitting them to become self-sustaining. This is the purpose of the College, and it has already been realised in a remarkable degree. It is found that of those who have gone through the full curriculum, from 80 to 90 per cent. are supporting themselves without charitable assistance.

Such education and training is necessarily attended with considerable cost, but the question is, does not the end justify the cost? We do not think that anyone who is acquainted with what the College has done, and is still doing, can hesitate to reply in the affirmative.

But if the work is to be continued a larger measure of support must be found for it.

The Committee would again gratefully acknowledge the support they have received from the Gardner Trustees, whose scholarships awarded to young Blind persons in England and Wales are the means of admitting many to the School who could not otherwise have obtained access to it.

They would also return their thanks to local committees in different places and to individual friends who pay for the tuition and maintenance of pupils in whom they are interested.

On behalf of the Executive Committee,

JAS. ALEX. CAMPBELL,

Chairman.

Principal's Annual Report.

Pupils.

During the year, the highest number of pupils was 155 ; the average has been 150. With few exceptions the conduct has been satisfactory, and the work has been up to the usual standard.

Report of H.M.
Inspectors.

In June, the Elementary Department was examined by H.M. Inspectors and the full grant awarded. The following is the report :—

“ I can again report very favourably on the quality of the teaching. The Reading is fluent and intelligent, the Writing is accurate, and the Arithmetie is good. The Recitation is well said, and the Oral Lessons are well calculated to promote the intelligence and improve the power of language of the pupils. The course of Manual Instruction is carefully graded, and the Physical Exercises deserve special praise.”

Report on Musical Department
by
Dr. C. H.
Lloyd.

“ It was a very agreeable duty to inspect the Music of the College on the morning of February 15th. Opportunity was given of testing the work done in all the departments, and the results were most satisfactory.

“ CHORAL SINGING.—The SENIOR CHOIR sang various Anthems, Madrigals, and Part-songs with commendable accuracy and with considerable feeling. The Anthems included a difficult composition by Emily Lucas, a student ; and the secular music included a remarkably good performance of Wilbye's long and elaborate Madrigal, ‘ Sweet honey-sucking bees.’ Throughout everything the good quality and balance of the voices were noticeable, and also the clearness of the enunciation.

“THE JUVENILE CHOIR gave a delightfully sympathetic rendering of Sterndale Bennett’s ‘Dawn, gentle flower’ as a unison song, and Abt’s Two-part Song, ‘Sweet Evening Bells.’

“SOLO SINGING.—Owing to prevalence of colds very few pupils were brought forward. Lizzie Crowley sang Allitsen’s ‘Song of Thanksgiving’ with a voice of good quality, but not absolutely under control. Alice Biffin sang Handel’s ‘From Mighty Kings’ neatly and accurately; and Miss Davis showed great intelligence in her rendering of a lengthy and ambitious Scena from Tennyson’s ‘Maud,’ composed by Emily Lucas.

“PIANOFORTE PLAYING.—There was a certain tameness and lack of animation about some of the performances; but apart from this criticism there is nothing but praise for the pianoforte work. The choice of music was admirable, and the pupils who were presented for examination displayed extraordinary accuracy. A delightful feature of this branch was the large amount of concerted music, ranging from a March for eight little hands on one keyboard to a Concerto by J. S. Bach for four Claviers, in all of which remarkable precision was displayed.

“ORGAN PLAYING.—The Students reach a very high standard, and it is not surprising to learn that not a few of them have passed the Examination for Fellowship and Associateship of the Royal College of Organists. The precision both of hands and feet was excellent, and the control of stops surprising. Special mention should be made of Watling and Crowley. Both have passed for their A.R.C.O. In addition, Watling has passed the Organ part of the Examination for his Fellowship, and he extemporises with fancy and fluency. Crowley played extraordinarily well the rather elaborate accompaniment of an Anthem which neither he nor the Choir could have had in their hands a complete fortnight.

"In this connection testimony should be borne to the wonderful quickness with which the students take in new music and commit it to memory. The anthem referred to above, though learnt in less than a fortnight, was sung and played by heart not only with absolute accuracy, but with striking intelligence and true devotional feeling. The pointing of the Psalms at Morning Prayer would have afforded many a seeing choir a lesson in precision and clear articulation. It should be mentioned that as a sight-singing test a new and rather difficult single chant was dictated to the Choir, and then sung perfectly correctly and without hesitation to the Gloria Patri.

"HARMONY AND COUNTERPOINT: A visit to Mr. Macpherson's HARMONY AND COUNTERPOINT CLASS was most interesting. In addition to the routine work in these subjects, pupils were shown how to modulate, how to accompany a melody with harmonies suited to its character, how to extemporise, and, in short, how to compose. Allusion has already been made to an Anthem of considerable importance by Emily Lucas, 'The time draws near the birth of Christ,' as well as to her extended song-cycle from 'Maud.' In addition to these compositions some original and fanciful Pianoforte Preludes by Watling were submitted to the Examiner. The whole work of this department is in a very satisfactory state.

"In conclusion, the College is heartily to be congratulated on the possession of an exceptionally competent and enthusiastic musical teaching Staff, and of a Principal who is himself a musician.

Staff.

Miss M. M. R. Garaway resigned on March 12th, 1904, and Miss H. M. Raw filled her place until the end of the term. After many years' faithful service Miss McLean and Miss Bennett resigned in July. Miss M. M. Bell, Miss M. B. Nixon, and Miss D. E. Sergeant were appointed to fill the vacancies. We are fortunate to secure the services of Mrs. L. d'Egville for Dancing and Deportment. This is a very important branch of instruction, for if the Blind can be cured of their inherent stiffness and awkwardness, the chances of securing employment are improved. Our best thanks are due to the entire Staff, not only for their faithful work in regular hours, but for their kindly devotion to the happiness and best interests of the pupils.

The weekly Pianoforte Recitals of Mr. F. Hartvigson, and Organ Recitals of Mr. H. L. Balfour continue as valuable and interesting to the school as in former years. The Recitals of the Pupils on the Piano and Organ have continued at regular periods, and have been helpful in increasing interest and arousing the ambition of the Students.

Mr. Stewart Macpherson, Professor of Counterpoint, Composition, and Orchestration, finished his lectures on Lectures. Orchestral Instruments, and is now giving an interesting analysis of Beethoven's Symphonies.

A large number of the pupils attended a course at the Guildhall School of Music given by Dr. Cummings, on the "History of Music."

The Rev. A. Elwin, who had been a missionary in China for many years, gave four lectures on the "Religions of the East."

Mr. Attenborough, a member of the Executive Committee, has given the first of his lectures on a "Tour in Palestine."

Through the kindness of the late Mr. Mocatta, the Rev. F. L. Meares came twice and gave interesting Recitations.

Mr. Patrick Monro also gave an enjoyable evening's entertainment of Recitations.

The Norwood Literary Society continue their lectures in the College Hall. The series includes the following lectures:—"Japan: Past and Present"; "Where Nations Meet"; "Mediterranean Tour"; "Indian Durbars"; "Reminiscences of Student Life in Germany"; "Early English Music"; "Southampton to the Cape"; "An Evening with Tennyson"; "The Story of Manipur"; "George Eliot's 'Silas Marner'"; "Bells and their Story"; "The True-born Englishman"; "An Ideal Hero": also a Recital by Mr. Victor Benham, and a Reading. Norwood Literary Society.

Our constant endeavour is to increase the general Reading. intelligence and culture of all the pupils. The daily paper

(The Times) is read every morning. Each teacher reads, two evenings in the week, well-selected books to the pupils of the different grades. The poetical and historical readings of Mr. Gny Campbell to the older pupils, this year, included selections from the works of Tennyson, Keats, and Shelley, Rev. Baring-Gould's "History of Germany," and from the "International Library of Famous Literature" extracts dealing with the Elizabethan Period.

In the Boys' School there is a Reading Union of about fifty members, under the management of Mr. A. Pearson. By the Rules of the Union, each member must read at least two embossed volumes a month out of our Braille Library, while once a month they have a literary evening, when some lady or gentleman gives a special reading or lecture.

During the year, 220 volumes have been added to the College Library of embossed books, which now numbers 5,506 volumes.

General
Organization and Course of Instruction.

The College includes five Departments :—A Preparatory School, a Secondary School, a Training College, a Technical School, and an Academy of Music. The following is the Course of Instruction :—

1. Physical Education, including Gymnastics (English, Swedish, German, and American), Dancing and Deportment, Drill, Swimming, Skating, Rowing, Cycling, and other Sports.
2. General Education, including, in the Preparatory course, Kindergarten work, Reading, Writing, Scripture, Arithmetic, Geography, Modelling, Sloyd, and Object Lessons in the elements of various subjects; in the Secondary Course, Literature, History, Science, Mathematics, Typewriting, Short-hand, French, Latin, and Greek. In the Secondary course, the Students can prepare for the King's Scholarship and University Examinations. In the Training College course, under the Education Department, the Students take the Training College Examination, and obtain their Certificates as School Teachers.

3. The Science and Practice of Music, including the Training of Music Teachers, Pianists, Organists, Choirmasters, and Vocalists. The instruction afforded the pupils is equal to that given in the best Conservatoires for the Seeing. Those who intend to follow Music as a profession receive special training in the art of Teaching. Great attention is given to Chanting and the Training and Management of Choirs. All the pupils attend numerous Lectures, Recitals, and Concerts.
4. Technical Education, including Mechanical Training and Pianoforte Tuning. No Tuner is granted a Certificate without serving an apprenticeship of several years, and undergoing a thorough Mechanical Examination.

A large number of the pupils in the School Department learn typewriting as soon as they become proficient in reading and writing Braille. The ordinary classes are taught letter-writing and prepare notes of lessons, compositions, analyses, &c. A few who show special aptitude take an advanced course, which embraces shorthand, tabulating, duplicate and other copying, specifications, and the routine requirements of a Commercial House. Typewriting.

The number of orders for typewriting* has greatly increased during the year, and experience goes to prove that typewriting—if well done—can be made a lucrative form of employment for girls in their own homes. Mr. James B. Hammond, the inventor of the typewriter of that name, most generously gives three new machines each year for prizes amongst the advanced pupils, which are awarded after a careful competition. This places in many of their hands the necessary stock-in-trade for carrying on the work after they leave the College.

Gymnastic Display at the Crystal
Palace.

On Saturday, July 23rd, at the invitation of the Metropolitan and Southern Counties Amateur Gymnastic Association, our pupils united with members of the Battersea Polytechnic, German Gymnastic Society, Goldsmith's Institute, Northampton Institute, Orion Gymnastic Club, and the St. Peter's Institute to give a combined Gymnastic Display in the Centre Transept of the Crystal Palace, in connection with the International Sports Exhibition. Altogether there were some 250 performers of both sexes. Our pupils were given two numbers out of a programme of ten items, and performed a special mass of single and double short wands and pyramids on the long horse.

The following official letter to Mr. Guy Campbell, from the Metropolitan and Southern Counties A. G. Association, is very gratifying:—

“The Committee of this Association heartily beg to thank the Royal Normal College for the Blind for their kind assistance at the Association's Display, and wish me to convey to you their hearty thanks for your very able help. The assistance you gave was of the very greatest value, and the Association fully recognize how much it contributed to the success of the display.”

Visit to Lancashire.

In October a party of the pupils visited Lancashire for the purpose of giving Concerts and Gymnastic Displays in Bolton and Rochdale. After deducting expenses the proceeds were given to the societies working for the adult Blind in those towns. In Bolton the chairman was the Mayor, Alderman Heywood, and in Rochdale, Colonel Royds, M.P.

During the year the Choir has sung for many Philanthropic, Temperance, and Religious meetings. The pupils took part in several of the Centenary Meetings of the British and Foreign Bible Society. We strive to "lend a hand" wherever any good cause needs assistance, and hope that all our students will continue the good practice after they have left the College.

Speech
 of the
 Right. Hon.
 W. C. Gully
 M.P.

At the close of the Concert the Chairman said:—"One is not surprised to hear good music from the Blind, because music has long been regarded as one of those accomplishments which could be readily taught to them; but all will agree that the music we have heard this day is unusually good. I have seen in the College many things which have both pleased and surprised me. In the shorthand and typing room were girls taking down in shorthand matter from dictation and typing the transcript: turning out excellent work. This struck me as a marvel of ingenuity, patience, and accuracy. Before visiting the College I had no idea that so much could be done or had been done, to qualify for earning their own livelihood those who were so apparently disqualified for entering into the battle of life. Dr. Campbell has expressed the hope that the benefits which are conferred on the Blind in this school will soon be bestowed on all blind persons at the public expense. One very strong argument in favour of this was that eighty-nine per cent. of the pupils of the College were able to earn their own living when they completed their training. It will be said on the other side that it is not the practice of the State to maintain boarding-schools. But it is necessary that the schools for the Blind should be boarding-schools, because the Blind are a small percentage of the population, and a school of that kind, if it is to be effectively and economically conducted, must be on a large scale, and must therefore draw its pupils from a very large area. I agree with Dr. Campbell that the education to be given to the Blind must be the best of its kind and therefore costly, and I would encourage him to persevere in the view he takes that the country would come to see the value of educating and training a class who might otherwise be dependent upon the community, and converting them into a wage-earning class. The public would surely see that it was a great thing, and worth paying for; eighty-nine per cent. of the students earning their own living is Dr. Campbell's sheet-anchor, and I hope that he will stand by it, and I heartily congratulate him and his able staff upon such excellent results."

Sir Albert Rollitt, M.P., proposed a very cordial vote of thanks to the Speaker of the House of Commons for the part he had so ably taken in those proceedings. There was no office they regarded with more respect and reverence than the office of Speaker of the House of Commons, and there was no one whose rulings were more respectfully obeyed than those of Mr. Gully. The Institution for the Blind made a pathetic appeal and a special claim upon their sympathies. The music they had listened to had been excellent, and they had enjoyed the beauty of the singing. He made a strong appeal to them to imitate the good Samaritan, but they could not do that without the oil and the twopence. He thanked Mr. Gully for sacrificing his half-holiday on the golf course, and also his daughter for so gracefully unveiling the Tree.

Sir Charles Elliott seconded the vote of thanks and made an earnest appeal for the support which was necessary to carry on the work of the College.

In the evening the concert was repeated for the parents and friends of the pupils. On this occasion the chair was taken by the Rev. W. B. Taylor (vicar of "All Saints"), and the Tree unveiled by Mrs. Taylor.

For many years the Christmas Tree has been the gift of Mr. William Tebb, of Rede Hall, Horley, and the bags of sweets which have decorated it have been provided by Mrs. D. C. Haldeman. On the Tree there were presents from Mr. J. B. Hammond, the inventor of the Hammond Typewriter, for the members of the typewriting classes; also a typewriter having a special shuttle for embossing Braille. The valuable collection of birds and animals in the entrance hall, which could not be placed on the Tree, had been sent as a present by Miss Alice Armitage. They were collected by her father, the late Dr. T. R. Armitage, who founded the British and Foreign Blind Association in 1868, and, in conjunction with the late Duke of Westminster and others, established the Royal Normal College.

The following particulars of the small beginning thirty-three years ago, and the strong faith of Dr. Armitage in the success of the undertaking will be of interest. The School was opened in three small houses near the Low Level Crystal Palace Station. On a cold, snowy evening in March, 1872, I went to London to meet the first two pupils, William Robson and George Whittaker, who were sent from Leeds through the kindness of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Armitage. After a thorough course of training these lads returned to Leeds, and obtained good appointments with the firms of Ramsden and Walker. Robson kept his situation until his death many years later. Whittaker is still with Mr. Walker, and for some years has been foreman of his department. Other pupils were soon sent from London, Liverpool, Glasgow, Edinburgh, Leeds, Manchester, Bristol, Dundee, and other places.

Establishment
of the College.

At a meeting a year after the College was established, Dr. Armitage said:—"It gives me great pleasure to be present here to-night, and to see, in some measure at least, the realisation of a long-cherished wish. The idea that the Blind can be trained on a large scale to maintain themselves fully by the profession of music, though comparatively new in England, has long been successfully worked out in other countries. France in this respect led the way, and about thirty per cent. of the Paris pupils do in fact earn good incomes as tuners, organists, and teachers. A still more favourable result is obtained at Boston, U.S.A., and to a less extent in other countries and other institutions. In England the proportion of success is probably not more than 1 in 100. This proportion is less in some institutions, higher in others, but is always in close relation to the quality of the teaching at each individual school. I shall be disappointed

Speech of
Dr. T. R.
Armitage.

if we do not enable about seventy per cent. of our pupils to maintain themselves, by which, I mean, to make incomes from £60 a year upwards. The only serious defect that I know of in the School is that the building is inadequate, though it was the best that we were able to procure with our limited means. The early history of the College is worth relating, as the circumstances which led to its foundation could scarcely be said to be fortuitous, even by the greatest sceptic. Mr. Campbell, the Principal, was Resident Superintendent and Musical Director at the Perkins Institution, Boston, U.S.A., for eleven years. He next proceeded to Germany, where he continued his musical studies at the Conservatoires of Leipzig and Berlin. After two years thus spent he was returning to America, and intended to spend about ten days in England. It is now necessary for me to give a short account of the causes which led to his occupying the position he now holds, and you will see that a succession of events were occurring in England all tending to the same end. Some years ago, struck with the great want of information and with the absence of union and co-operation that existed among the different societies and individuals interested in the welfare of the Blind, some blind gentlemen formed an Association under the name of the British and Foreign Blind Association for promoting the Education and Employment of the Blind, with the object of ascertaining all that could be learnt in different countries on the subject, selecting the best methods, diffusing information, and bringing all that was known on the subject to a focus. The Association soon had its corresponding members all over the world. The names of many of the first in the land are among its Vice-Presidents or Members, and Her Majesty became its head; but the greatest peculiarity is that the members of the Executive Council are all totally or partially blind, so that in all decisions relating to the Education of the Blind, the Blind themselves have now become the judges. Mr. Campbell, a few days before leaving Berlin, was introduced to a leading man in the City who had become one of the staunchest friends of progress in North Germany. That gentleman gave Mr. Campbell an introduction to me, and he called on me as soon as he arrived in England. I was engaged at the moment, and he was shown into the drawing-room, and my secretary, to pass the time, read an article of mine which had just appeared in the Journal of the Society of Arts on the value of music as an employment for the Blind, and the necessity for teaching on a better system, either in one of the old Institutions or in a new one to be founded for the purpose. We soon saw that the circumstances which had been leading up to our meeting were not the result of mere accident, and the further progress of the movement has convinced me more and more of the truth of this belief. I have given this short history in the hope that it may inspire you with some of the faith which I feel in the ultimate success of the College. I expect a very great success; but if it comes, let us not boast as if we had been anything but the links in a great chain of events which have been gradually shaped for us. Let us be filled with gratitude to God that so good a work has been done, and let us remember that the work is everything and the agents are nothing."

It has been demonstrated that the Blind can be well educated, made happy, and prepared for future independence and usefulness. For many years France, Germany, Austria, Norway, Sweden, Denmark, Belgium, Switzerland, Spain, and the English Colonies have made National provision for the education of the Blind. In the United States, each State Government not only makes liberal provision for the education and training of the Blind, but provides grounds, buildings, and a complete equipment in all departments. Although it costs much more per head, the Blind are as amply provided with means of education

National Support
in other Countries.

as the Seeing. The United Kingdom stands almost alone in allowing the education of the Blind to depend upon charity.

Elementary
Education.

By the Act of 1893 it became the duty of School Authorities to provide Elementary Education for Blind children. Instead of establishing Special Schools, or making arrangements to send the Blind children to thoroughly-equipped Residential Schools, many School Boards formed "Day Centres." Although these Centres have been supplied with good teachers, it is impossible for such Centres to provide the most vital and important requirements—thorough physical training, careful manual training, and systematic fundamental musical training. Many Blind persons are able to earn a good livelihood by the profession of music, but, in order to prepare them for this profession, they must begin their musical training in early childhood.

Secondary Education

If thorough physical, manual, mental, and musical training were given during the Elementary period, and Parliament would grant a complete course of Secondary Education, the Blind of this Nation would then be on an equal footing with those of other countries.

National Scheme.

The Elementary Education should end at fourteen years of age, when an intelligent opinion can be formed in regard to the future career of the blind children. They should then be placed under the most favourable conditions for their development along the lines which will best fit them for future self-maintenance; they will fall naturally into the following classes: (1) Those who will succeed better in handicraft than in any other calling, should be drafted into a suitable mechanical school. (2) Those who have special gifts for general business, should be educated accordingly. (3) Those who have the ability and ambition to prepare for the University, should be afforded the most thorough preparation for the University Examinations.

(4) Those who have the necessary talent, combined with the requisite character and industry to succeed in the musical profession, in addition to a liberal education, should have musical instruction equal to that given to the Seeing, in the best Schools of Music. (5) Those who have suitable qualifications for Pianoforte Tuning, should be trained as thoroughly and systematically as the apprentices in well-regulated pianoforte factories. At fourteen years of age the Government should grant students who wish to follow music or other professions, a course of Secondary Education for at least six years, and provide a thorough course of Technical Training for the Blind who will have to depend on handicrafts.

Our great effort must be to lift the Blind from pauperism. As soon as they enter a school, all semblance of pauper origin should be removed. They must be inspired with a desire for independence and a belief in its possibility. In the public mind, blindness has been so long and closely associated with dependence and pauperism that Schools for the Blind, even the most progressive, have been regarded hitherto as asylums, rather than educational establishments.

In 1871 the founders of the College resolved to establish a School for the Higher and Musical Education of the Blind, which should afford the Blind of the Nation an education, moral, physical, mental, technical, and musical, fully equal to that given in the best educational establishments for the Seeing. While they gladly availed themselves of the suggestions of leading educators of the Blind in all countries, they also carefully studied the plans, principles, and methods of the most progressive Institutions for Physical Culture, Technical Schools, and Conservatoires of Music for the Seeing, both in Europe and America.

In order to prepare the Blind for practical success in the musical profession, it is essential that systematic, physical, mental, and musical instruction should begin in childhood. After several years' experience, as it was found that so many of the pupils who entered the College had not received this fundamental training, they resolved to open a Preparatory School, which, with the generous help of the Gardner Trust, was accomplished in 1881.

Objects

They have endeavoured to keep to the highest standard in each department, and to secure loving, enthusiastic teachers, who, while they did not undervalue systematic routine, appreciated the true importance of character-building. In the School Department the Teachers have been graduates of Training Colleges; in the Musical Department the best London Professors have been employed; in the Pianoforte Tuning Department the Manager was for many years one of Broadwood's most skilful men; in the Technical Department the Teacher, although he was a skilled mechanic, took a special course in Swedish Sloyd; in the Physical Department the Director is thoroughly conversant with all the different systems of Physical Development.

From the first, the founders of the College maintained that the Blind could only be made self-sustaining by increasing their intelligence, bodily activity, and dexterity, by inculcating business habits, by arousing their self-respect, and by creating in their minds a belief in the possibility of future self-maintenance.

Although many of our pupils have been drawn from the poorest classes, from eighty to ninety per cent. of all who have completed their training are self-sustaining men and women, established in all parts of the United Kingdom, the Colonies, and the United States. The success in life of many Teachers, Organists, Pianoforte Tuners, and active business men testifies to the quality of the instruction given. We feel that the practical result justifies us in appealing for increased financial support.

Our great aim is not only to benefit our students, but inspire them with a desire to raise the standard of their class—to give “light in darkness,” passing it on like a beacon-fire from hill to hill with the watchword not so much “Help us ! ” but “Help us to help ourselves.”

While thanking our generous supporters for their help in the past, we ask that they will not only continue that help, but use their influence to induce others to join in the good work.

Appeal

“The absence of any really properly-equipped State schools makes the claims of the Royal Normal College upon the community but the more valid. Putting it upon the lowest basis, every blind girl or boy who is taught a trade or profession is a gain to the taxpayer. Putting it upon the higher basis, these little ones, born in the shadow of a ‘great darkness,’ are surely entitled, not only to our sympathy, but to our practical assistance.” And at the present time the College is badly in need of practical assistance. It is unendowed; there is a mortgage of £15,000. Donations to redeem the mortgage, the interest of which is a serious burden on the annual income, and an annual subscription list of at least £3,000 are necessary if the College is to maintain its present standard of efficiency.

Principal.

Pianoforte Tuning.*

Please note we send certificated pianoforte tuners from the College to any part of the London Postal District, for tuning and repairing of pianos. Orders and inquiries addressed to the Manager, Pianoforte Tuning Department, Royal Normal College, Upper Norwood, S.E., will receive prompt attention.

The proof of the efficiency of the College tuners is that an ever increasing number of ladies and gentlemen, especially members of the musical profession, as well as manufacturers and music dealers, employ them, both in London and the Provinces.

Testimonials from those who are employing the College tuners will be found overleaf.

No tuner is granted a Certificate without serving an apprenticeship of several years, and undergoing a most thorough examination. George Rose, Esq., of Messrs. Broadwood and Sons, Limited, is Chief Examiner. For the examination the pupil not only tunes pianos for inspection, but is actually tested while at work; the manner of holding and managing the tuning hammer and damper with the varieties of pianos, including overstrung instruments, being carefully noted. Each pupil is also required to demonstrate his

* Pianoforte Tuning as a profession for the Blind was introduced many years ago by Claude Montal, a blind pupil of the Paris School, and founder of the manufacturing house that bears his name. To him is due the scientific method of tuning now general both among the Seeing and the Blind. In France it is well known the Blind make the best tuners, and there they readily find employment on the same terms as the Seeing.

Numbers of the College tuners are now successfully established at Liverpool, Leeds, Sheffield, Huddersfield, Hull, Bradford, Chester, Darlington, Sunderland, Edinburgh, Glasgow, Paisley, Dundee, Dumfries, Kilmarnock, Cardiff, and other towns. Residents in the above towns or neighbourhood desirous of employing our tuners will be furnished with their addresses upon application to the Manager of the Department.

The following Testimonials, selected from among the many received, testify to the thorough work of our Certificated Tuners.

ROYAL ACADEMY OF MUSIC, TENTERDEN STREET, HANOVER SQUARE, LONDON.

I have much pleasure in stating that I have been fully satisfied with the tuning of a grand pianoforte, belonging to this Institution, by a member of the Royal Normal College and Academy of Music for the Blind, Upper Norwood. The instrument in question has been tested by me, and I find it is in perfect tune; indeed, exceptional care has been bestowed upon it. I have therefore no hesitation at all in cordially recommending the tuners of the College to the public.

A. C. MACKENZIE.

45, BEDFORD GARDENS, CAMPDEN HILL, W.

I have great pleasure in expressing to you my entire satisfaction with the way my Broadwood grand was tuned by one of the tuners from your College.

With kind regards, believe me very truly,

G. HENSCHEL.

SYDCOTE, WEST DULWICH, S.E.

During the past ten years I have had my pianofortes tuned by certificated tuners from the Royal Normal College for the Blind, and am able to say that they have always given me the utmost satisfaction. I should be sorry to place my instruments under other hands.

WILLIAM H. CUMMINGS,
Principal, Guildhall School of Music.

* The perfunctory work of Blind pupils who merely linger two or three hours daily over a piano accomplishes very little towards fitting them for business. The pupil must be as diligent, energetic, and persevering as the seeing apprentice, and willing to give even more time for the necessary preparation.

Rules and Terms for the Admission of Pupils.

1. The College is open to the young Blind of either sex up to the age of twenty-one.

2. The annual charge for pupils sent by subscription or school authorities is as follows :—

Under 13	£35
Between 13 and 16	£45
Over 16	£65*

These terms do not include clothing or travelling expenses.

3. The terms for private pupils will be furnished by the Principal upon application.

4. The fees cover board, lodging, washing, and medical attendance. Payments in all cases must be made in advance, and are due October 1st, January 1st, and April 1st. The first and second payments are for three months each, and the third for four months. All cheques and Post Office Orders, in payment for pupils, should be sent to the Principal at the College.

5. Except in cases of severe illness, all pupils are expected to be in attendance at the College on the first day of each term.

6. Pupils will only be admitted at the beginning of one of the terms. If possible, they should enter at the beginning of the Michaelmas term.

7. As it is of the utmost importance to keep up home ties between pupils and their families, it is desirable that all pupils shall spend at least the summer vacation with their parents or friends.

8. All pupils must be provided with strong clothes, either new or in perfect repair, as per the following lists, and their parents, friends or guardians will be required to renew the clothing when deemed necessary by the

*The Gardner Trust grants Scholarships, after examination, in aid of the young Blind of England and Wales, whose friends cannot pay the entire cost.

Committee. Pupils whose eyes are disfiguring will be required to wear glasses. The glasses should be obtained at the College.

9. The use of tobacco in all forms is strictly forbidden. All pupils, without regard to age, during their connection with the College, must abstain from the use of tobacco either on or off the College premises. The use of beer, wine, or any drink containing alcohol, is only allowed when ordered by the medical authorities of the College.

10. In all cases the following form must be filled up by a duly qualified medical practitioner. The questions are not, however, put with a view to exclusion, but for information regarding the pupils.

- (a) Is the applicant totally blind, or if only partially so, has he sufficient sight to enable him to follow any profitable employment?
- (b) What appears to have been the cause of blindness?
- (c) Has the applicant had small-pox? Has he been vaccinated, and is there satisfactory evidence that the infection was complete?
- (d) Has he had measles, whooping cough, or scarlet fever?
- (e) Has he been subject to epileptic fits?
- (f) Is he free from scrofula or cutaneous disease?

(Signed) _____

11. In cases in which the pupil is not entirely paid for by his or her friends, some reliable person must give a guarantee that the necessary clothing will be supplied; that the pupil will be removed from the College during vacations; and, in case of death, that the funeral expenses will be paid.

12. Parents or friends can visit the pupils on the first Wednesday in November, February, April, and June, between 2 and 5.30 p.m. If, for any special reason, parents wish to see their children at other times, they should write to the Principal for an appointment. As a rule, it is not expected that more than two friends will visit any pupil on the same afternoon. When visiting the College, parents are earnestly requested not to bring young children with them. Friends cannot visit the pupils on Sunday; this rule is strictly enforced. Parents are specially requested not to bring or send sweets or eatables to the children. If the children go out with their parents, they must not undertake commissions for other pupils.

N.B.—Applications and inquiries in regard to the admission of pupils should be addressed to the Principal, F. J. Campbell, Esq., LL.D., "Windermere," Church Road, Upper Norwood, S.E., who will gladly forward forms and any further particulars. Persons can see the Principal on business on Fridays from 11.30 to 1 p.m., and 4 to 6 p.m.; otherwise by appointment.

LIST OF CLOTHING.

FEMALE DEPARTMENT.

Stays and tight-fitting dresses are prohibited. Dresses and other clothing must give ample room across the chest. Dresses narrow across the chest invariably lead to bad positions. Parents are especially requested to attend to this requirement, as the health very much depends upon proper clothing. The skirts of the school dresses must be at least $2\frac{1}{2}$ inches from the ground, to allow freedom in walking.

- 1 Sunday dress.
- 2 Week-day dresses.
- 1 Gymnastic suit, which should be purchased at the College, and must be renewed when necessary.
- 1 White petticoat.
- 2 Coloured petticoats.
- 2 Flannel petticoats.
- 3 Undervests (flannel or merino, high-necked and long-sleeved).

- 3 Chemises.
- 3 Bodices (supplied with buttons for supporting the skirts).
- 4 Pairs of drawers.
- 3 Nightgowns.
- 1 Flannel dressing gown.
- 12 Towels.
- 8 Pocket-handkerchiefs (at least).
- 6 Aprons or Pinafores.
- 4 Pairs of stockings.
- 1 Pair of best boots.
- 2 Pairs of strong boots.
- 1 Pair of slippers.
- 2 Hats.
- 1 Sunday jacket.
- 1 Week-day ditto, or shawl.
- 1 Waterproof.
- 2 Pairs of Gloves.
- A sufficient quantity of collars and cuffs.
- 1 Comb and brush.
- 1 Small-toothed comb.
- 1 Nail brush
- 1 Tooth brush.
- 2 Small bags for combs and brush.
- 2 Bags for soiled linen.

N.B.—The gymnastic outfit is indispensable, and should be obtained at the College, as it is important to have all the suits alike. If the clothing and gymnastic outfit are not provided, it will be the duty of the Principal to suspend the pupil. If Parents will furnish 15s. for the first year, and 10s. each succeeding year, the pupil will be kept fully supplied with all that is required for the Physical Department.

MALE DEPARTMENT.

- 1 Sunday suit (of black or dark navy blue material).
 - 2 Very strong week-day suits.
- Coats and vests must be broad across the chest, to give the lungs full play.
- 3 Shirts.

3 Night shirts.

6 Collars (at least).

The bands of shirts and collars are often too small: this is a fatal error, as it not only injures the health, but prevents all chance of progress in singing.

6 Pocket-handkerchiefs (at least).

4 Pairs dark worsted stockings or socks.

1 Warm coat or cloak.

1 Stiff black felt hat for Sunday.

2 College caps (furnished at the College at 1/6 each).

2 Pairs of gloves (1 pair of plain dark woollen material or woollen-lined for winter use, and 1 pair of dark-coloured dog-skin gloves for the summer).

1 Pair of Sunday boots.

2 Pairs of very strong boots for week-day use (without hob-nails).

(Parents are requested to exercise special care in regard to the size of the boots. They are often too small.)

1 pair of leather-soled slippers, with low heels (furnished at the College at lowest wholesale rates).

Gymnastic shoes (black), jerseys (dark navy blue, with 2-inch collar), cap and belt (furnished at the College at the lowest wholesale rates).

2 Woollen vests.

2 Pairs woollen drawers.

Comb and hair brush.

Small-toothed comb.

2 Small bags for comb and brush.

1 Tooth Brush.

1 Bag for soiled linen.

The rule in regard to the supply of clothing is imperative.

N.B.—The gymnastic outfit is indispensable, and should be obtained at the College, as it is important to have all the suits alike. If the clothing and gymnastic outfit are not provided, it will be the duty of the Principal to suspend the pupil. If parents will furnish 15s. for the first year, and 10s. each succeeding year, the pupil will be kept fully supplied with all that is required for the Physical Department.
